

A journey to seventh heaven for animals

Loyalty, unconditional love, companions for our soul, animals have a way to make us feel whole, loved, cherished, accepted. Therefore it's one of the hardest things having to let them go. And it's for this love, this support, that it is only natural to wish for their last journey to be as smooth as possible. My service includes supporting your soulful companion in being able to leave you and having a safe, supported, guided journey to the lofty paradise beyond.

This accompaniment is a tradition as old as time, but has been forgotten for centuries. The gift has been handed down to me from my great-grandmother and has been ignited years ago.

My help has rules, laws I abide:

- it will only open the gates when the time to leave has come
- it will abide by the free will of the one leaving
- it will ensure a journey as accommodating as intended
- it will guarantee integrity of the soul

What to expect

Those still here and about to go can be helped along the journey. If your friend has already gone, let's make sure they found their way.

I will make sure their soul finds its way and will arrive in full integrity at their destination.

For your own peace of mind, you may have a certificate, a printed reminder that your loved one is safe.

Nothing can substitute the love of an animal. They support us in life, bring laughter, comfort and security and remind us what it means to be human. That love is the most important thing.

Our pets return to this love, to the place where they can roam freely and bask in the joy and love of the universe. Let's ensure they get where they belong to.

Is it time to act out of the purest of love and to let go? I am here to support you and them during these trying times.
